

“Lady and the Tramp” Knew About the Power of Pasta

- Support Friends for Animals of Metro Detroit and enjoy a delicious pasta dinner
- Third annual fundraiser hosted by Pat d’Ambrosio

DEARBORN, MI. September 30, 2016— Friends for Animals of Metro Detroit (FAMD) supporter and Dearborn resident Pat D’Ambrosio will be serving up some paws-itively perfect pasta to benefit the area’s animals on Monday, October 10 from 5-8 p.m. at Park Place Caterers, 23400 Park St., Dearborn.

Tickets are $30 per person and include salad, bread, pasta/mostaccioli with meat sauce and meatballs (also a meatless marina sauce choice), and dessert. Children under five are free.

“Pat’s pasta dinner is always a highlight,” said Elaine Greene, executive director, FAMD. “His generosity and the support of all the enthusiastic diners help the animals throughout our community find forever homes.”

Tickets are available at www.metrodetroitanimals.org.

So far this year, more than 1,150 animals have found new homes, thanks to the Friends for Animals of Metro Detroit.

About FAMD

After 22 years of nurturing more than 47,300 animals, the Friends for Animals of Metro Detroit have embarked on the “Raise the Woof” public phase of their “Building a Home with Heart” capital campaign to construct a new Animal Adoption & Education Center at the site of the former Dearborn Amtrak station on Michigan Avenue. FAMD is located at 2661 Greenfield Road, Dearborn and can be found online at metrodetroitanimals.org.

#

MEDIA CONTACT: Colleen Robar, 313-207-5960, crobar@robarpr.com