TREY TAYLOR BRINGS HIS CRITICALLY ACCLAIMED SHOW TO FRIENDS FOR ANIMALS OF METRO DETROIT TO BENEFIT THE ANIMALS

DEARBORN, September 4, 2020 – Friends for Animals of Metro Detroit (FAMD) is hosting a “Live Concert Under the Stars,” a fundraiser which will benefit the animals at FAMD. With his large sold-out performances rescheduled to next year due to COVID-19, Trey Taylor is using this time to raise funds for organizations and issues that are close to his heart. FAMD is honored to host Trey at a small outdoor event that will follow all CDC social distancing recommendations. The event, rescheduled from July 18th, will take place on Saturday, October 2, 2020 from 6 pm to 9:30 pm at the MaryAnn Wright Animal Adoption and Education Center at 16121 Reckinger Road, Dearborn, MI.

Trey Taylor is the youngest African-American in country music history. At just 21 years old, he is a singer, composer, public speaker, philanthropist, plays over nine instruments, is a true entrepreneur in the entertainment industry, and an animal lover.

The Denver Post wrote “It’s impossible to miss his enthusiasm. With a fondness for cowboy boots, gaudy colors and dazzling jewelry, Trey Taylor could stand toe to toe with any of the Pop, Country or even Rap contemporaries of his generation and give each of them a good run for their money, a fact that hasn’t been lost on audiences across the world. They’ve embraced his singular style wholeheartedly, a warm reception that’s helped guide this charming, charismatic force of nature on his creative path. His young female fans roar when he hits the stage, his peers respect his style and he transcends audiences capturing them in the palm of his hands without even being aware of doing it.” You can learn more about Trey at www.TreyTaylorMusic.com

All proceeds from this event - which is being held in honor of Fox, a very special dog adopted from FAMD who recently passed away - will go to Friends for Animals of Metro Detroit and the 2,500 animals they care for each year. Tickets are limited to just 30 guests, and include
