

FRIENDS FOR ANIMALS OF METRO DETROIT NAMES CORY KELLER AS PRESIDENT AND CEO

DEARBORN, MICH. February 21, 2023 – Cory Keller has been named president and CEO at Friends for Animals of Metro Detroit (FAMD), Board Chair MaryAnn Wright announced today. He begins the position on March 13.

With 17 years of animal welfare experience, Keller is currently the manager, Animal Care and Control Division for the City of Cleveland. His prior positions include serving as the executive director, Berea Animal Rescue Friends and operations director for Geauga Humane Society's Rescue Village. He is a graduate of DeVry University.

“FAMD has a big year ahead as we prepare to move all of our operations into the MaryAnn Wright Animal Adoption and Education Center on Reckinger and expand our footprint,” said Keller. “I am energized by the FAMD vision and future plans and I look forward to becoming an active part of the metro Detroit community of animal lovers. “

FAMD is a 501c3 organization and is located at 16121 Reckinger in Dearborn. Friends for Animals of Metro Detroit is dedicated to the rescue, protection, and adoption of companion animals in need, while inspiring the human-animal bond. Friends for Animals of Metro Detroit (FAMD) was founded in 1993 by volunteers who believed that homeless animals in our region deserve a second chance at life. Building on our strong sense of animal welfare, FAMD has grown in the past 28 years to an organization of great impact in the companion animal welfare community. The organization helps find homes for approximately 1,800 dogs and cats each year.
